Further Venice school assessment loss likely

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer
Assessed valuation of property in the Venice School District is expected to decrease by $6 million in the next two years, creating further financial problems for the district.
The Venice Board of Education, meeting Thursday night, heard the report while reviewing the mid-year financial outlook for the remainder of the current school year through June 30 and the 1978-79 fiscal year.
The report was prepared by Superintendent of Schools Robert N. Vickers.
Assessed valuation in the district currently stands at $26 million, Vickers said. The 1977 taxes were paid a drop of $6 million from 1974.
A loss in assessed valuation of $3 million is expected in each of the next two years, Supt. Vickers told the board members.

"Unless the financial picture changes radically and some means are found of getting money into district funds, it appears we will be facing second-year anticipation warrants in 1978-79 in the education fund," Vickers said.
Through issuance of tax anticipation warrants, the Venice district has borrowed against "next year" taxes for the past six years.
A total of $525,000 in tax warrants was issued against the 1977-78 collection in education fund taxes to carry the fund through June 30, 1978, and $435,000 will be expended of the total warrants, Supt. Vickers said.
For the fourth consecutive year, $75,000 in tax anticipation warrants were issued in the building fund, the maximum amount allowed, Vickers said. About $30,000 remains in this fund to cover expenses through June 30, which may not be sufficient, he added.

The fund covers salaries of custodians and expense of building maintenance.
If additional money is required, it could be borrowed from the remaining education fund warrants, but this action would increase further the indebtedness in this account, the administrator said.
By operating its own fleet of school buses this year, the district is expected to "break even" or come out ahead by $1,200 in the transportation fund, it was noted.

If no major problems arise with the vehicles and manpower personnel still are available as drivers, the second year of operation could result in a $10,000 saving over last year's transportation expenditures, Vickers said.
In an effort to reduce spending, the board has held back on many projects in the district and has not replaced some staff members whose jobs became vacant through attrition, it was noted.
If these actions had not been taken the Venice district would be facing even greater financial difficulties, Vickers said.
In other business, the board authorized the filing of an application seeking Title IV funds, (Continued on Page 4)

Collision is fatal to GC man

LaVerne G. Larsen, 49, of 2207 Manley Ave., was killed in a head-on crash on Maryville Road one-tenth of a mile south of Arnold Drive, at 9:55 p.m. Friday. He was pronounced dead at the scene by Madison County Deputy Coroner William Sternberg at 10:15 p.m. Friday.

Madison County Deputies reported an unidentified southbound auto forced the southbound car of Robert T. Meyer, 17, of Rural Route One, Box 456, Granite City, across the center line and head-on into the northbound Larsen auto.

Meyer and Miss Terri Bloomquist, 16, of 3801 Lake Drive, lot 21, Pontoon Beach, who were returning home from a sports banquet at Granite City High School North, were injured. Both have been released from St. Elizabeth Hospital. Witnesses said the southbound auto which left the scene, believed to be a yellow or cream-colored car, possibly a 1968 to 1970 Oldsmobile, passed Meyer's auto in the right lane, and then encountered an area where a six-foot pile of snow blocks the right lane without warning.

The yellow auto then swerved suddenly into the center southbound lane, either striking Meyer's auto or forcing it to swerve to the left into the oncoming lane, where it hit the northbound auto.
"We are unable, at this time, to determine whether the car which left the scene and Meyer's auto actually collided, but there is some white paint on

Scouters honored

Three Quid-City area volunteer Boy Scout leaders, Glen Hommer, William Down, and Richard Spillers were awarded the coveted Silver Beaver award Saturday evening.

The presentation took place during the 26th annual scouts' recognition dinner held at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Edwardsville.
The Silver Beaver is the highest honor a Boy Scout council can award to a volunteer leader. To receive the award, an adult must be active for a minimum of ten consecutive years.
Hommer, who lives at 4108 Melrose Ave., is currently committee chairman of Boy Scout Troop 13, sponsored by St. Elizabeth Church.
He began his adult volunteer work as a troop committee member in 1956, and since has served in many capacities, including assistant scoutmaster, merit badge counselor, assistant district commissioner, round-

Board would fill any county office vacancy

Growing speculation about the possibility of a vacancy among Madison County officials has led some political observers to check legal precedents. Their conclusion: Such a vacancy would be filled by the Madison County Board.
In some areas of Illinois, the central committee of the resigning officials' political party would fill a vacancy.

But in this county, it is believed, the decision would be up to the County Board chairman with the board's consent.
Sheriff John Maeras at various times has denied rumors that he plans to leave his elective position prior to the expiration of the present four-year term in December.
He is believed to have moved out of the sheriff's living quarters in the County Courthouse at Edwardsville and to have moved back to his original home of residence, Madison.

Where he formerly served on the city police department. Whether the move has any effect on the sheriff's position is uncertain.

Today's temperature fell to a new record of seven degrees below zero at 7 a.m., with the wind-chill index falling as up to 25 degrees below zero.
The snow cover that has been present for several weeks had been expected to begin to depart today—until the temperature prediction was revised downward late last week.
It is now speculated that there could be some melting starting Thursday.

Study bids for sewers

Despite inflation over the past year and a half, there is a possibility that low bidders on installation of a major sanitary sewer program in Chouteau and Nameoki Townships can perform the work at the original amount.

Contractors, submitting the joint bid are reviewing cost factors and will give their decision by Feb. 22.

Details of the project's current status are given by the sewer committee on Page 19.

United Way meeting

Contributors to the Tri-Cities Area United Way will participate in the annual United Way meeting at 4 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 9, in the YMCA auditorium, 20th Street and Edison Avenue.

Among those submitting reports—will be John Blasingame, general chairman of the successful fall 1977 campaign; John L. "Jerry" McDonald, budget committee chairman; and David Fox, priorities and planning chairman.

Contributors will elect board members, and at a latter meeting the board will choose officers for 1978.

Salt study

James Estes of Mitchell, a candidate for sheriff of Madison County, purchased road salt from a vendor who was never able to convince township officials how the salt was obtained, records showed today.

The vendor once told the Chouteau Town Board of Trustees that he got the salt from Santa Claus.

Estes, while highway commissioner of Chouteau Township, made several purchases from the late Harold Stoltz, a Mitchell contractor and hauler, including 77 tons of salt for $10 per ton during the winter of 1977.

Salt, during that winter, was selling from stockpiles in St. Louis for about 9.50 to $10 per ton and truckers were charging $2 to $3 per ton to deliver it.

As a result, most areas were paying about $12 per ton for salt last winter, officials said.

When Estes presented the salt bills to the town board for payment, the board requested a bill of lading or other document to verify that the salt had been paid for and that the delivery trucks had been weighed before unloading the salt at the township highway department.

At a December 1975 meeting, township minutes reflect the following:

Mrs. Homan honored, successor named

During an official session of Madison County Circuit Court in Granite City, Helen Homan, clerk of the Circuit Court in Granite City, was honored on the date of her retirement Friday after 20 years in that post.

Circuit Judge William Beatty presided at the official court session and said, "This session has been called to recognize the long and successful term of Helen Homan and the longer term of her family in the court clerk's position here."

Beatty referred to the 62 years Granite City has had a Homan as clerk of the court, as Helen succeeded her father-in-law, Alvah N. Homan Sr., after he served 42 years.

Circuit Clerk Willard V. "Butch" Portell also participated in the "trial," stating, "This is a happy day and a sad day. It is sad to lose Helen and it is happy that she earned what she has been working for all this time."

M. Joseph Hill, president of the Tri-City Bar Association, thanked Mrs. Homan for her aid to attorneys during her 20 years of service and said, "I never came to your office when you were not the most pleasant person I met all day."

Beatty said Mrs. Homan was "the right hand and the right arm of the judges who served in this court," including 15-years she aided Judge Fred P. Schuman, and all other circuit and associate judges in the circuit.

"On behalf of the judges, I would like to express our appreciation for the tremendous job you have done and our regret that you are leaving us," Beatty said.

Judge Schuman was a special guest and also thanked Mrs. Homan for her aid to him while he served as judge in Granite City.

Her husband, Al Homan also was asked to speak and said Mrs. Homan "is just as sweet, considerate and concerned at home as a wife as she was here as a clerk. I am looking forward to having her at home," he said.

Mayor Paul Schuler told the court, "I am sure the city hall employees and I will miss her. There will be a void left behind. Best wishes from everybody, Helen."

Mrs. Homan, with tears in her eyes, then said, "Thank you everybody. I will miss all of you. Besides my wedding day, this is the happiest day of my life."

Beatty then adjourned the official court session and Mrs. Homan greeted each of the 150 friends, attorneys, judges and officials who had come to honor her.

Gifts purchased by the lawyers of Madison and St. Clair counties and by city and county employees were opened by Mrs. Homan. The included a jewelry box, an ornate clock and a pearl necklace. "All things she has said for years that she wanted," a fellow employee of Helen's said.

A large cake honoring her was cut and everyone present was welcomed to refreshments, including cake, punch and desserts Mrs. Homan's co-workers had prepared for the event.

Among those present was Beverly Adamson, who will replace Mrs. Homan as chief clerk here, and Chris Potillo, chief assistant.

Volunteers helping youths on probation

By CHARLES BOWEN
Director of Volunteer Service
Madison County Probation and Court Services

The Madison County Probation and Court Services Department has a volunteer program that aims to help youths in trouble with the law. Toward this end, it attempts to match a capable adult in the community with a youngster on probation.

There are 500 such youths in our community at any one time. Typically, these young people (generally ranging from ages 12-17) are placed on caseloads of probation officers.

An average caseload consists of from 30 to 75 clients. Without the kind of individualized attention that only a concerned and competent adult can give, almost 25 percent of these youths will return to the court system, in many instances for more serious crimes. Volunteers can make a difference in the lives of these young people.

The role of the volunteer is that of a friend and advisor. Orientation and in-service training are designed to support the volunteer, who works as a part of a team with the probation officer and other resources within the community while the youngster is on probation.

Many of the youths our volunteers work with come from very difficult home situations. Often, there is no father and the mother may be overwhelmed by too many children for her too few resources.

Many times, the youths live with other relatives away from both father and mother. These youths have had to fend for themselves and cope with complex family problems, often far beyond their ability.

The boys and girls are picked up for a variety of offenses, such as auto theft, shoplifting and truancy.

Most of the kids are tough in ways of the streets and some have been exposed to drugs.

The volunteer can help. He can help by offering the boy or girl emotional support and by demonstrating a mature and adult way to face day-to-day problems and seek out reasonable solutions.

Most of all, the volunteer helps by taking a personal interest.

He helps by being someone who cares about what happens to the youth. He helps by listening to what the boy or girl has to say.

If you would like to become a Court Service Volunteer, please contact Charles Bowen (892-4450).

These youths need help today. If you can make this kind of a commitment to a young person, we need you.

Scuffle with police Sunday

Lloyd Reynolds, 19, St. Ann, Mo., faces two disorderly conduct charges and one charge of resisting arrest after he allegedly was involved in two disturbances early Sunday.

An officer on duty at Jack-in-the-Box Restaurant on Nameoki Road said he noticed four youths on the patio, eating and using loud and profane language. He alleged the four were throwing trash on the floor and when they were ready to leave, the officer ordered them to clean up the mess they had made.

One youth allegedly refused, saying the restaurant employees could clean it up. The youth allegedly was loud, used profanity and ignored several orders to be quiet.

He then threw off his coat, made fists and started toward the officer, threatening to beat him, it was alleged. The youth's friends helped the officer subdue and handcuff the youth, who continued to curse as the officer took him to jail, it was alleged.

He was charged with one count of disorderly conduct and placed in jail. At 3:25 a.m. Sunday, officers decided to release him from custody and got him out of the jail. They alleged he continued to be abusive toward the officers and objected to the procedures used for his release.

In the lobby of the police station, officers said he continued to yell and appeared to be "working himself into a rage," according to police reports. After calling one officer a name, he allegedly threw off his coat, raised his fists and threatened nearby officers.

Police subdued him again and returned him to jail, charging him with an additional charge of disorderly conduct and one count of resisting arrest.

Social activities for sr. citizens

Two additional social activities for senior residents of Granite City Township are planned during February, it was announced today by Township Supervisor Nelson Hagnauer.

On Wednesday, Feb. 22, a special "Gong Show" format is planned for a program beginning at 1:15 p.m., with contestants being urged to sign up now at the desk in the new Granite City Township Building, 2006 Delmar Ave.

On Friday, Feb. 24, a "hobo polka and dance" is scheduled at 5 p.m. in the township building, when participants will be invited to attend in their favorite "hobo" costume.

Among the 950 passengers riding the CHORBUS (Community Handicapped and Older Riders bus) during January, a record breaking number, a total of 270 was transported to physicians' offices or for out-patient treatment at the hospital.

Another 270 senior citizens were participants in the nutrition lunch program, a meal served daily at the township center; and 358 were taken to purchase groceries or transported for a variety of reasons, such as cashing Social Security checks.

Seniors wishing to schedule a CHORBUS trip, or needing further information about the programs available through the township, are invited to call 877-8584, Hagnauer said.

Talking clock aids blind, handicapped

Electronics engineering students at SIUE have received an award in international competition for a "talking clock" they designed and are building to benefit the blind and handicapped.

The eight students who participated in development of the clock and their faculty adviser have been notified their proposal was one of the top 10, in a field of 38 entries, in Vincent Bendix Awards Competition.

Sponsored by the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, the Bendix awards competition encourages engineering students to develop their management skills through team participation. The students are members of the campus chapter of the IEEE and will receive funding for their design proposal.

The clock, which emits data audibly, will utilize a solid state speech synthesis device and will have special provisions in its design for time setting, systems activation, power failure warning, and alarm setting, according to Raghupathy Bollini, associate professor of engineering and technology and faculty adviser to the team.

$750 CASH STOLEN

Granville Harris, of 1035 1/2 Calhoun St., reported at 9:30 a.m. Sunday that he left the North End Hall, 401 Weaver St., Venice, to have breakfast at 8 a.m., returned and found a south side door had been pried open. Pry marks were also found on the cash register and $750 was reported missing. An upstairs apartment also was burglarized, but there was no report of anything missing.

STEEL SECTIONS of a repair crane installed atop the Granite City Steel hot strip mill near 16th Street and Madison Avenue are hoisted into place by this helicopter Friday. Installation of the crane was completed Friday, officials said. (Press-Record Photo)

The dinner will be held at the American Legion hall, Edwardsville. There will be a social hour at 5:30, a buffet dinner at 6:30 and dancing to Joey James' Orchestra following the program. Tickets are $7.50 per person for the meal and dance.

connection with the timing of his departure from the office is unknown.

Political opponents of those backing James Estes for sheriff in the March 21 Democratic primary election have voiced concern that Estes somehow might advance to the sheriff office prior to the election, perhaps then leading out a spectacular raid or two to enhance his image as a person deserving of votes.

Estes was endorsed for the office by a 15-13 vote of the Democratic central committee's executive board in the primary race, one from Alton and four from the Quad-City area, there is a possibility that the Quad-City vote may be so split up that all local residents would have difficulty winning the primary.

With five candidates in the primary race, one from Alton and four from the Quad-City area, there is a possibility that the Quad-City vote may be so split up that all local residents would have difficulty winning the primary.

Illinois law provides that "when a vacancy occurs in any county which is not a home-rule unit in any elective county office... at any time before the expiration of the term of such vacant office... such vacancy shall be filled within 60 days by appointment of the chairman of the County Board with the advice and consent of the County Board."

"The appointee shall be a member of the same political party as the person he succeeds was at the time of his election, and shall be otherwise eligible to serve in the office vacated."

"The appointee shall serve until the next general or county election, when a successor shall be elected for the unexpired term or a full term, as the case may require."

Matoesian assails 'gimmicks'

A sharp attack on alleged campaign tactics of Associate Judge William E. Johnson was voiced by Circuit Judge A. A. "Andy" Matoesian at a candidates' forum held Thursday night by the Collinsville Democratic Club at the VFW hall in Collinsville. About 100 attended.

The two are rivals for the Democratic nomination for circuit judge.

Matoesian told the gathering, "I've been a Democrat all my life—that's more than my opponent can say, because he was a registered Republican at one time. Everyone here knows that I did not appear before the screening committee, but I think we should examine my opponent's record."

"His recent statements are inconsistent with his past statements and I believe he is making his present statements in an effort to win an election—and only to win an election."

"I am not running against the regular Democratic organization—I wish to have the support of everyone."

"Four years ago, my opponent ran for circuit judge against Judge Mosele. At that time, Johnson appeared before the screening committee and was rejected."

"He then ran against the regular organization at that time and continually blasted the organization. It was a bitter attack."

"He put out a bar of soap that said 'clean up the Courthouse' and he referred to the regular organization as bossism."

"He put out ads stating, 'Don't let anyone tell you how to vote,' and that he's the 'un-politician,' etc., in an effort to criticize the regular organization. He recently put out a press release praising the screening process and the regular organization."

"Bill Johnson's next campaign involved the race for state attorney. In that campaign, he referred to himself as an independent Democrat."

"In that race he again backed the regular organization. Shortly before the primary, he withdrew from the race and was appointed an associate judge. Use your own experience and intelligence as to whether this was a deal."

"Johnson is running for circuit judge again—and he's using his same old gimmicks in an effort to get elected."

"We both applied to the Supreme Court for the position presently hold. We both laid our credentials before the Supreme Court and I was selected."

"In Johnson's recent press release, he states that he appeared before the screening committee and was selected, and was not selected by lawyers or judges, inferring that the Supreme Court process was bad."

"I just wonder what he would have said about the Supreme Court if he were appointed a circuit judge by the Illinois Supreme Court."

"Some of the gimmicks and slogans he has used is using are:

1. "The bar of soap—clean up the Courthouse."

2. "The book of matches with a picture of a man—Kick crime out of Madison County."

3. "Tough but fair—Hard on crime."

4. "A poster that says 'Common Peoples Judge'—Consumers Judge."

5. "A present sign which states—'Don't Short the Circuit.'"

6. "Past advertisement as to how he was a pea picker and sheetmetal worker."

"Now, Johnson is good at slogans and ads; he's also a professional candidate. But I don't think a person should be elected a circuit judge on slogans and promises that attempt to appeal to the basic instincts of the voting public. I pledge to follow the law."

"A judge who states he is going to send everyone to jail or deny bond to defendants just can't be following the law."

"The law directs a judge—a judge has a sworn duty to follow the law. Trial judges don't make law that's for the legislature. Perhaps Johnson should run for the legislature and not circuit judge."

"One of the jobs of a judge is to determine who is or is not telling the truth."

"A long-standing rule of evidence—and everyday common sense—is what did that person say or do beforehand. To use a fancy legal term, 'Impeachment by prior inconsistent statements,' as the man on the street says, 'Did he do a flip-flop on certain issues?'"

"I submit that my opponent has done some flip-flops, and his promises and statements should be so treated. I make one pledge; that pledge is to follow the law," Matoesian concluded.

Barbara Fralik, 28, of 2405 Delmar Ave., was injured when her car and the soft-drink delivery truck of Timothy Travis, St. Charles, Mo., collided in the 2400 block of Delmar Avenue Thursday.

Mrs. Fralik said snow and ice narrowed the street to one lane, and when she tried to pull to the right for the oncoming truck, her auto went out of control on the ice.

She was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where she was admitted for observation with injuries to her head and left knee.

Representatives of another company said they did some weighting for Mr. Stoltz, but it could not be determined if the weight markings for the salt were theirs, Sparks has said.

Supervisor Sparks also has said he went to Ninth and Cass streets in St. Louis, where Mr. Stoltz said he had a salt pile, and found only buildings and a vacant lot at that intersection.

The salt issue was referred to the township's attorney, Alan Walker, who delivered his legal opinion to the township trustees at the Jan. 10, 1977, board meeting.

The minutes of that meeting relate: "He (Walker) stated that it was his concern that we had no verification of the amount of salt delivered to the township."

"He stated that under the Illinois lien laws, it was not necessary that we have a lien waiver from the supplier of the salt."

"However, it does seem to him that obtaining a lien waiver from the supplier of the salt might be the easiest way to obtain verification of the amount of salt."

"Whether we call the document an affidavit or a lien waiver is of no significance, but it appears without further verification, it is impossible to determine the amount of salt actually delivered."

"He stated that it is within the power of the Board of Auditors to withhold payment until such a time as the amount can be determined. It is the decision of the board (to withhold payment)," the minutes reflect.

Mr. Stoltz died in Macon County a short time after the salt deliveries here and his survivors filed suit against the township to attempt to recover the payment for the salt.

The township lost the suit and settled for payment of $750 to Mr. Stoltz's estate.

which he presented to the board. Mr. Sparks (Township Supervisor) asked him where he had his salt weighed and he told them St. Louis Slag.

"He (Sparks) also asked him from whom he purchased the salt which he sold the township. Mr. Stoltz stated, 'You might say I got it from Santa Claus.'"

"He then said he had a stockpile of salt and cinders and Supervisor Sparks asked him where it was and he replied at Ninth and Cass streets (St. Louis)."

Sparks has said he took what Mr. Stoltz said were weight tickets to St. Louis Slag in Granite City. Sparks contended that company officials said the weight markings were not from that company.

Woman robbed, raped

A woman resident of Edwardsville near Route 102 was raped and robbed of $274 by a man representing himself as a deliveryman for a parcel service at 2:30 p.m. Friday.

The victim, who is in her mid-30s, told Illinois state troopers the man called her house, said he was employed by a parcel service and had a parcel to deliver to her. He asked her if she would be home and she said she would.

A short time later, a man in his mid-20s knocked at her door with a package in his hand. She opened the door and the man discovered a knife and forced his way in, she told troopers. After forcing her to disrobe, he placed tape over her eyes and raped her, she said. He then forced her to get into a closet and he left, it was reported. She discovered later that the money had been taken from the kitchen table.

The man was described as about 5 feet, 10 inches tall, having reddish-brown hair and a full beard and wearing a dark ball cap, black jacket and blue jeans. No vehicle was seen.

Immunization of Madison students being stressed

The Madison School Board reaffirmed its policy Thursday evening requiring physical examinations and immunization of children entering kindergarten, fifth and ninth grades, in keeping with the Illinois School Code.

The 1977-78 annual immunization survey conducted by the State Board of Education was reviewed by the board. The code calls for kindergarten children attending school in Illinois to be adequately immunized against preventable childhood diseases of polio, diphtheria, tetanus, pertussis (whooping cough), measles, mumps and rubella. The board approved a letter written to parents by the school administrators, explaining local and state policies requiring physicals and immunizations.

A letter from Gerald Masie requesting a meeting with the board was read, and the meeting is being arranged. Masie was tentatively hired in January by the board as public information coordinator for the school system, providing he met criteria of the Citizen Advisory Committee.

According to a school spokesman, Masie was not given the position and board hiring was rescinded, as Masie allegedly did not live in Madison.

The citizen committee had said the informational coordinator must be a resident of the city of Madison.

The Madison school district extends into Venice, where Masie lives, it was noted.

Reimbursements to the school system by Interstate United Corp. for vending machines at Madison High School were discussed by Board Member Sam Dymas.

"It seems to me that a ten percent commission on the sales is far too low," Dymas said. "I think we should get close to half."

Board Member Chester McManaway, presiding in the absence of the president, said, "This could be a matter we need to look into. I think we should check into this and perhaps the administrators or someone can come up with a better plan."

Mrs. Evelyn Holt, cafeteria director, informed the board that the State Board of Education has changed some of the policies regarding the free milk program.

She pointed out that all students eating a regular lunch will have milk as part of the lunch, but if they now want a second milk it is no longer free and must be purchased.

The "break" program for children at Blair, Dunbar and Harris schools will not be affected.

It was noted that plans are tentatively being made for serving breakfast. Due to the number of free meals offered in the system, Madison may be asked by the state in the future to serve breakfast, it was related.

A discussion also was held concerning setting up a cost accounting system in regard to cafeteria operations, and a possible need to train cooks and clerks in cost accounting procedures.

School administrators said this is becoming necessary due to the amount of state and federal monies used in the cafeteria program.

A letter was read praising the work of Mrs. Wanda Graham in the Illinois Association for Physical Education and Recreation (IAEPER) while president of the Southwestern District and a member of the Representative Assembly.

The letter was written by IAEPER President Joan E. Martin. Mrs. Graham is an elementary physical education teacher.

FREE TAX AID for senior citizens is being offered by the Granite City area chapter 1340 of the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP). The aid is coordinated through the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program of AARP, which is coordinated in Madison and St. Clair Counties by Mrs. Elma Hoover, right. At the center is Mrs. Vina Law, receiving assistance Friday morning by the volunteers at the Granite City Township Hall, 2060 Delmar Ave. The volunteers are at the hall each Tuesday and Friday to help with income tax questions and problems. At left is Mrs. Helen Bertacchi, a volunteer for VITA.

Arrest 2 in bottle theft

Two boys, ages 15 and 16, face possible juvenile court action after allegedly stealing $9.70 worth of empty bottles from a pen behind Farm Fresh, 3715 Nameoki Road, and attempting to receive cash for the bottles at Schnuck's Grocery in Crossroads Plaza Shopping Center Thursday.

Police responded to a report the bottles were being loaded into a shopping cart at the Farm Fresh store. When they arrived, officers were told the boys had left toward Schnuck's.

At Schnuck's, one boy ran from a police car and was caught behind the store; the other was found inside attempting to get money for the bottles, it was alleged.

Farm Fresh officials have reported numerous thefts of bottles from both its Nameoki Road stores in recent weeks.

Arrests at school

Two 15-year-old boys were arrested in the smoking area of Granite City High School South Friday after one boy allegedly passed marijuana cigarettes to another boy within feet of a school security monitor.

The boys were taken to the assistant principal's office and enroute, one boy was seen hiding something in his clothing. A plastic bag containing more marijuana allegedly was found in his trousers. Both were released to their parents and a juvenile court petition is to be filed against one, police said.

Tax incentive to make access for handicapped

"The Tax Reform Act of 1976 offers taxpayers an incentive to remove architectural and transportation barriers making a structure or vehicle more accessible to handicapped individuals," James S. Jeffers said Friday. Director of the Illinois Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, he cited interim regulations implementing the new Section 190 of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Internal Revenue Service will allow a taxpayer to deduct up to $25,000 in any tax year beginning after Dec. 31, 1976 and before Jan. 1, 1980.

"Qualified" costs approved for deduction are defined in the regulations as those incurred for removing barriers in any facility or public transportation vehicle owned or leased for use in a trade or business.

"I certainly urge business people to investigate eligibility for this tax break," Jeffers said. "As barriers are removed, more and more disabled individuals will become contributing members of their communities—earning money and spending money," he said. Further information on the tax incentive for removal of architectural and transportation barriers can be obtained by contacting the Legislative and Regulations Division, Office of the Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service, 1111 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20224.

Success in treating drug-addicted veterans

In a study newly completed at the West Side VA Hospital in Chicago, drug dependent veterans received significant benefits from treatment for drug abuse, a Veterans Administration spokesman said today.

The study, to be published in the International Journal of the Addictions, followed 469 veterans over the course of their treatment. The patients were considered "hard core" addicts.

They were addicted to heroin for an average of eight years. They spent an average of three years in prison (mainly for crimes against property and for narcotic crimes), and they were mostly unemployed for over one year.

In addition, they were multiple drug abusers taking heroin, alcohol, marijuana, Talwin and, occasionally, cocaine.

Many had psychiatric problems. Most patients had been treated for drug dependence on two other occasions without success. They were considered inveterate and refractory to treatment efforts.

The study found that after six months in treatment, heroin use decreased significantly and these gains were maintained after one year in treatment.

At the end of one year in treatment, 84 percent were employed fulltime, and their arrest rate dropped to near zero. The patients showed no measurable gains in participation in school or in training programs while in treatment.

In contrast to success seen for patients remaining in treatment, those who dropped out within 30 days and were followed up one year later, were found to have increased their heroin habit over the previous year while their arrest rate remained unchanged.

Only 18 percent of this group worked fulltime and a few were in school.

In addition to the poor outcome for untreated drug dependence, many of the dropouts were in jail at the time of followup, and three percent of the dropouts had died during the intervening year due to drug-related deaths.

Robert J. Craig, Ph.D., clinical psychologist who conducted the study and who is also the program director of the Drug Treatment Center at West Side VA, says, "Drug dependence can be successfully treated, but patients must remain long enough for treatment to take effect."

One problem noted by the study is the high dropout rate during the course of the study. Dr. Craig cautioned that the results should be interpreted against the fact that those who remain in treatment might be a different type of drug addict than those who drop out. Nevertheless, great optimism was felt for those who could remain in treatment.

Dr. Craig said that "although much of the public outcry against drug abuse seems to have subsided, the problem remains, and the VA's effort to treat drug dependence is no less intense."

Because of widespread publicity given to drugs in Vietnam, it is often thought many older veterans may be unaware that the same treatment is available to them.

In the Chicago area, three of the four VA hospitals have specific programs for drug dependent veterans. The other two are Hines and North Chicago.

Dr. Craig said the study clearly documents that drug addiction will not go away on its own and, if left untreated, can lead to serious medical and psycho-social difficulties to the addicted person.

Long labor record by family—Worthen

John "Jeff" Worthen, 2414 Madison Ave., a Granite City Park Board member running for the Madison County Board, today replied to an allegation by his opponent that he would be a "stooge" for the Bricklayers union.

Addressing Board Member Daniel Partney as vice-president of Granite Sheet Metal and Three D, Inc., and treasurer of Thomas Ambulance Service and PT, Inc., Worthen said the following:

"On Jan. 16, your offer of a joint public meeting was published in the Granite City Press-Record as a news release and your usual arrogance was apparent by your attempt to set the date, time, place and format of the meeting.

"While I was attempting to select a time and place compatible with my schedule as well as yours, your news release of Jan. 30 appeared in the paper.

"Mr. Partney, Bob Weis is the elected leader of a leading labor organization of which I and my father are proud to be members.

"My grandfather came to Granite City over 60 years ago and was a 50-year union man and civic leader, and I consider my family's tradition of union labor and community service a good one.

"Therefore, Mr. Partney, I do not consider myself anyone's stooge."

"Because of your personal attacks and your refusal to discuss the issues, I will not meet with you in any joint public meeting. I do fully intend to take the issues to the people door-to-door.

"I do fully intend to inform the people and to discuss and to expose your effort to undermine the economic efforts of all working people in our district by your public support and votes for non-union organizations and non-union labor" along with the rest of your unkept "visions."

Candidates to speak at meeting of club

Democratic candidates in the April primary election for Madison County sheriff and treasurer and regional superintendent of schools will address the Granite City Democratic Club at its meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Von Dee Cruse, club president, said the candidates' session will take place at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 2052 Edison Ave.

All candidates for the three posts have accepted invitations to attend, Cruse said. Each has been allotted a five-minute period to state qualifications and the objectives of their candidacies.

In addition, Miss Evelyn Bowles, Democratic incumbent clerk of Madison County, also will be present.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting and those present will have an opportunity to meet informally with the candidates, Cruse advised. Friends of club members are being invited to attend.

The club officer noted that at the March meeting, Democratic candidates for state senator, state representative and judgeships have been asked to participate in a similar program.

Under regular business of the club, members will vote on an amendment to the bylaws, changing the club name to the Granite City Area Democratic Club.

"We have always acknowledged and recognized elected officials, as well as memberships, around the immediate periphery of Granite City," Cruse said in explaining the purpose for proposing the change in club name.

Under regular business of the club, members will vote on an amendment to the bylaws, changing the club name to the Granite City Area Democratic Club.

UNEXPECTED OBSTACLE greets southbound motorists on Maryville Road just south of Arnold Drive where a six-foot wall of snow suddenly cuts off the right lane. The snow may have contributed to an accident Friday night in which two southbound autos came upon the obstruction, and one was forced into the northbound lanes where it collided head-on with a northbound car, killing one of the drivers. Officials said the state maintains that section of Maryville Road.

Burglar foiled

Marvin Lindsey, 2108 Kirkpatrick Homes, heard a loud banging at the front door of his apartment at 2 a.m. Friday and looked from a second floor window to see someone at the door.

The intruder removed the molding and glass from the bottom and center windows in the front door, but a piece of plexiglass over all three windows in the door foiled his entry.

After about 20 minutes of attempting to open the door, the man left, Lindsey reported. At 3:30 a.m. Friday, Lindsey heard what sounded like the screen door being opened and the plexiglass being struck, but entry again was foiled by the plexiglass.

Lindsey then said the youth walked away from his apartment.

YOUTH IS STABBED

Larry Nowicki, 18, of 927 Reynolds St., Madison, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital with a stab wound suffered about 2:30 a.m. Sunday when three youths assaulted him in a parking lot in the 1900 block of Edison Avenue. He said he had just left a nightclub and was walking to his auto when another car in the lot nearly struck him. He exchanged words with the driver of the car and the driver and two passengers got out and fought with him. During the scuffle, he was stabbed, he said.

Honor nurses

Due to the closing of schools the previous week, school nurses held their January meeting Friday morning, Feb. 3.

They were served a decorated cake and coffee. Vasil Efthimiou, director of pupil personnel services, presented each nurse with a carnation on behalf of himself and his secretary, Dorothy Hamilton.

B. J. Davis, superintendent, commended the ladies for their performance of duties.

Mrs. Jan Comer, a Madison County public health staff member, was guest speaker, promoting dental health care for children.

Warriors settle wrestling dispute in a big way

By PETE HAYES

GRANITE CITY—Ever since the higher powers created Granite City High School North, there has been an on-going dispute as to which school, North or the older school Granite City South, has the better sports teams.

In every sport, beginning with football and soccer in the fall and ending with baseball and track in the spring, there are "classic matchups" between the city's two high school powerhouses.

In between the pigskin antics in the autumn and the play on the diamond in the spring, there is a sport which Granite City—year in and year out—takes pride in at both high schools. Wrestling.

The 1978 version of the North-South wrestling classic was held Thursday at North. After it was over, there was little doubt as to which school was best on that particular night.

SOUTH'S Warriors grapplers lost only one varsity bout and went on to demolish the host Steelers 35-8.

That one win for North was not unexpected. Undefeated Khris Whelan, a 119-pound powerhouse, remained so after a 15-6 win over South's Wally DeShon. Whelan's record for the season is 32-0. After the bout, North had taken an 8-3 lead. But that was the last time they would score a point.

South took an early lead when Greg Garland decided to Steel. Garland Miller 9-3 in the 98-pound bout. The next two bouts were fought to draws.

At 106, North's Bob Kirgan and South's Rocky Lupardus drew at 2-2 and at 112 Scott Clement of South and Steeler Tracy Patton fought to a 6-6 tie.

After the Whelan-DeShon bout, it was all South. They won all eight of the remaining weight classes, including one pin, to walk away with the city crown.

At 136, Barry Forshee of South—decisioned Kevin Shemwell 14-6. Dean Perkins of South beat his North opponent at 132 pounds, Allen Kirgan 6-4.

Then Perkins' brother Sam dealt out the only pin of the meet. He did it to North's Greg Shemwell at the 2:59 mark of their 136-pound bout.

In an exciting bout, South's Darrell Hasty came from behind to nip Steeler Ray Stuart 9-3 in the 145-pound bout.

Mike Forshee kept up the South domination of the meet when he defeated Steeler Brian Culver 10-8 in their 155-pound bout. Scott Polson won his 167-pound bout from North's Mitch Stien Miller 4-0.

IN THE TWO heavier weight classes, both South entries won. Mark Lemp defeated North's Jerry Broadwater 7-2 at 185 pounds and Warrior Don King beat Tim Wyronek 7-4 in the heavyweight class.

Both Granite City schools are entered in the Edwardsville Class AA (751 enrollment or more) District Tournament which begins Thursday. Other schools entered in the tourney are Alton, Bethalto, Collinsville, Edwardsville, Highland, Roxana and Wood River. The winners will advance to the sectional tournament Feb. 16-18 at GCHS South.

Participants in the South Sectional will be the winners from the Belleville West, Carbondale, Edwardsville and Quincy districts.

The state final tournament will be held in the Assembly Hall at the University of Illinois in Champaign Feb. 24-25.

Steelers battle Madison in the 'game of their lives'...

MADISON—In every basketball team's time together, there comes a time when they are asked to give their absolute all against large odds. That has happened to the Granite City North Steelers twice this season.

Against Collinsville, the top-rated large school in the area, the Steelers lost an overwhelming decision in December. It happened again Friday night against Madison, the top-rated small school in the state. The result of that encounter might well have been described for the Steelers as "the game of their lives."

They lost to the Trojans 66-61, but not before they let them know that they had come to play.

IT MIGHT have been the old "Ohlendorf mystique." Granite City North coach Bill Ohlendorf has had a history of doing well against teams from Madison dating back to the years when he headed the powerful Venice teams of the late-1960's.

Whatever it was, it almost worked. But the speed and quickness of Madison resulted in their eighteenth win of the season.

"Their quickness definitely got to us at times," said Ohlendorf. "But I thought we played well over-all. We just tried awfully hard. I thought (Rick) Willaredt had the best game of his life."

The 6-4 Willaredt scored 23 points in the losing effort for the Steelers. Madison coach Larry Graham was less pleased with his team's effort. We just didn't react defensively," he said. "I don't know whether we were flat from the Lebanon game last Tuesday or what. They (North) played well, but I thought we gave them a lot of chances to stay in the game."

"We can't play hard two nights in a row. The kids play good... till they get tired," commented Steeler Coach Bill Ohlendorf.

North lost to Belleville West 71-65 Saturday, despite having two players in the 20's, Dennis Page with 20 points and Rick Willaredt with 25. Darin Fries of the Maroons tied Willaredt with 25 points.

Brad Gauen of North won the opening tip as he got the ball to Willaredt. Willaredt passed to Page, who put up a 25-foot jumper to strike first blood. Two minutes later, Page hit again, this time from 20 feet out. Page also scored the last two points of the quarter, with 1:39 remaining. West scored six more points to go on top 16-10 at the end of the first period.

North rallied in the second quarter and came within one point at halftime, 27-26. Willaredt put the Steeler machine into gear as he scored 10 of North's 16 points in the second quarter. Gauen scored the other six.

"We had a lull in the third quarter, and that hurt us. No one can win with huls," said Coach Ohlendorf.

The Steeler offense only scored six points in the entire third quarter and the defense allowed 19 points.

Greg Leuthman, Page and Willaredt put in the points for North as Fries "went to town" for West. Fries tallied eight of his points as his team took a commanding lead at the end of the third quarter, 45-32.

North didn't quit there, but scored more points in the fourth quarter than it did in the first three quarters combined.

North scored 33 points in the fourth, but the Maroons added 26 to win by six.

As the final period began, Brad Burton immediately went in for a layup. That took only seven seconds.

Page accounted for 10 of North's 33 points. Fourteen of West's points were by courtesy of charity tosses.

Bob Batley of North gave the fans something to cheer about with one second left in the game. He put up a half-court shot that was good.

South regrets Belleville trip

By DOUG IRVIN
For the Press-Record

BELLEVILLE—It was a rough weekend for the Granite City South Warriors in Belleville. They probably regretted they ever made the trip.

The Warriors were knocked off by Belleville Althoff Friday 62-51 and lost to Belleville East Saturday night 68-59.

The South varsity five went out on the court Friday with a lot of confidence, after beating North last weekend and winning the JV game against Althoff.

Don Gonzalez, a South sophomore was the hero of the JV game. South was down by one point with a couple of seconds to play when Gonzalez put up a shot at the buzzer. The shot went in after the buzzer, but was good and the junior varsity won, 56-55.

Despite the confidence, South lost to the Belleville Althoff varsity Friday night by 11 points.

Steve Hanger of Althoff finished the game with 24 points and Terry Angle of South put on a 19 point show.

"They played a 2-3 defense, which no one is used to. It is getting more popular in colleges now, but you have to have the top to score, and we didn't," commented Warrior Coach Don Deterding.

On the opening tip, Angle missed it but the ball wound up in Lee Heubner's hands. Heubner was unable to score and Althoff tallied first—Rich Serkin from 10 feet out.

Sixteen seconds later, Angle scored his first two points on a 15-foot jumper. South made only two more baskets in the first quarter, one by Heubner and another by Angle.

While South had his six-point, first-quarter hulk, Althoff cashed in for 17 points.

The Warriors shrunk the deficit down to six points as the first half ended with Althoff on top 32-26.

Jeff Parker, one of Deterding's juniors, stole two passes. He made two charity tosses off the first one and was unable to score on the second.

After halftime lectures by the coaches, South scored five points before Althoff could score one. Tom Henrich put in a 20-foot jumper and Angle completed a three-point play.

Angle scored four more points before teammate Heubner put in two baskets; the last one being at the one-second mark.

South found the enemy lead stretched back out to nine points at the end of the third quarter.

Angle took the first rebound of the fourth quarter and drove within 10 feet to shoot. Rich Mosby tipping in Angle's shot.

With a minute left in the game, Heubner, meshed a 25-footer, bringing South within 10 points.

Twenty seconds later, Heubner hit from 20 feet, but these were South's last baskets of the game.

Althoff scored three more points, to make the final score 62-51.

"If you don't hit enough, you can't win any games. We still need one more win to have our winning season," said Coach Deterding. "We just couldn't get the ball inside to Terry enough."

Cougar tennis, '78

Farrow, Rusick and Company might just be good enough to take it all

GRANITE CITY'S BILL RUSICK

After last year's sensational season posted by the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville tennis team, the old "show biz" saying, "What are you going to do to top that?" is a valid question to pose to the Cougars' coach, Kent DeMars.

DeMars' tennis squad, including four All-Americans, is truly good enough to make the young court mentor optimistic about his charges' chances of winning the division (NCAA Division Two) national championship, again at San Diego State University in mid-May.

Back on the Cougars' squad is Juan Farrow, who captured the National Collegiate Athletic Association Division Two singles crown last spring and won the prestigious United States Public Parks Tournament title in 1977.

Farrow, a sophomore from St. Louis (Summer High), will again team with SUE's No. 2 singles player, Arjun Fernando, in doubles. This duo finished second in doubles at San Diego. Farrow's biggest individual victory in '77 was his triumph over Ferdi Taygan, UCLA's No. 1 singles player and ranked around the world.

Farrow's season record in '77 for SUE was an impressive 20-4. Fernando, now a junior, posted the Cougars' best win-loss record: 21-2 in singles, including the championship in the St. Louis Junior Invitational Tournament.

In that Tourney, Fernando was impressive as he zipped through Matt Horwich, 6-2, 3-1, in the final match. The St. Louis Junior tourney is one of the major meets in the nation, DeMars points out.

THE OTHER TWO returning

SIUE All-Americans are senior Kent Smith and junior Billy Rusick.

At the recent eight-team tourney (all college teams) hosted by SIUE the first of the year, Smith and Rusick, the latter of Granite City, were undefeated in their positions while taking on some top Midwestern universities.

"With Brian Miller now back in top physical shape," said DeMars, "I feel that we have five very solid players and, on any given day, we can compete with any tennis team (college) in the country."

Miller, who was a seeded player at the nationals, has posted some outstanding victories in recent seasons, including one over Randy Crawford, the Southwest Conference singles champion and seventh seed at the NCAA Division One championship finals held at the University of Georgia, Athens, last spring.

IN SUMMING UP his team's prospects, DeMars said: "Being invited to the National Collegiate Tennis Classic at Palm Springs, Calif., in January and playing dual matches with schools such as UCLA and many others, I feel we have a good chance of attracting top talent to SIUE and thus being able to achieve our goal of a national title."

DeMars is also counting on a trio of top-flight players to back up Farrow, Fernando, Rusick, Miller and Smith. In Andy Houston, a spot starter for three years at SIUE; Scott Whaley, a brilliant freshman from St. Louis' Parkway Central High; and Alan Miller, Brian's younger brother from Toronto, Canada, also a first-year player.

Even before the regular season has started, two members of the SIUE tennis squad have been singled out for extraordinary honors.

Farrow, as one of the best 32 collegiate players (each one an All-American) in the U.S. was picked to play in the National Indoor Singles Tournament at Houston, Tex., in late January 1978. He won two and lost two there.

Then, early in February, Farrow and Fernando were picked to play in the National Indoor Doubles Tournament of 32 All-American teams at Wichita, Kan.

DeMars' team will play 30 dual matches, starting with Eastern Kentucky at Richmond, Ky., Feb. 10 and ending May 15 on the West Coast against San Diego State just prior to the NCAA Division Two finals May 17-20.

ONLY SIX of the dual matches will be on the Cougars' newly resurfaced courts on the SIUE campus: March 18 vs. Illinois State U.; April 12 vs. SIU-Carbondale; April 18 vs. the U. of Illinois; April 19 vs.

Missouri; April 26 vs. St. Louis University; and May 5 vs. Southwest Baptist.

The Cougars' invasion of the West Coast will start against powerhouse UCLA at Los Angeles May 12.

Cougar wrestlers 2nd in 13-school tournament but cagers lose twice

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville wrestlers performed with skill and success Saturday, but Cougar basketball players had a tough weekend, losing twice.

For the matmen, their competition involved participation in a 13-university tournament staged at Southwest Missouri (Springfield).

The Cougars finished in second place with 113 team points to 144 for victorious Eastern Illinois (Charleston).

Individual championships were achieved by two Cougars, Tom Reed (118 pounds) and Mark Hattendorf (177).

SIUE entries also captured two seconds, two thirds, a fourth and a fifth place.

The basketball Cougars lost 62-72 Friday night at Oakland City College in Indiana and then took it on the chin 88-76 at Indiana State (Evansville) Saturday evening.

Cougar high scorers were Jim Allen, 14 points Friday, and Keil Peebles, 23 points Saturday.

Jones aiding WIU cage squad

Randall Jones, who helped guide Madison to its Class A Illinois State basketball championship last season is making his presence felt on the Western Illinois University basketball team.

Jones, working as a starter for the 9-10 Leathernecks, is averaging 6.3 points per game. Leatherneck coach Jack Margenthaler is pleased with the play of all his freshmen, especially Jones. "I just can't say enough about him," he said. "In fact, all of our freshmen are doing an outstanding job."

South's sophomore wrestlers overcame North 52-5, ending the sport Warrior season also undefeated with seven wins. Lady Cougars defeat Greenville

The women basketball Cougars at Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville defeated the Greenville College Panthers Thursday night at home, 63-56, before the season's largest crowd, and brought their record up to 6-3.

The game, which was cancelled twice because of weather, was well worth the wait for the Cougars. They were up for the game and more than ready for a victory after their loss to Quincy two nights before.

To add to a winning atmosphere, the cheering section was scattered with brightly colored balloons, as if ready for a victory party.

The contest was much closer than the final score indicated. The Cougars were a little sluggish during the first half and did not get on the scoreboard until after four minutes had passed.

The Panthers' offense and defense were excellent in the first half, and it looked as if it would be rough going for the Cougars. SIUE trailed early on but finally caught up and tied the Panthers at 5:25, 19-19.

Near the end of the first half, the Cougars rallied and broke out of their slump, going seven points ahead of the Panthers, 31-24, at the intermission.

During the second half, the Cougars set up and executed plays extremely well. As a security measure, the Panthers initiated a one-on-one type of defense, but it did not pay off as Coach Lori Stark's Cougars refused to be contained.

Junior Kathy Going led the scoring for SIUE with 13 points. High scorers for the Panthers were Rayette Johnson with 18. The Panthers committed 24 fouls. SIUE's 19 each.

Other scorers for SIUE were: sophomore Olivia Allen, 12; freshman Norma Jones, 11; freshmen Jane O'Laughlin and Kim Whelan, 10 each; sophomore Brenda Schrage, 4; and junior Jen Parsons, 3.

SIUE's 19 each.

Mixup on some fuel assistance payments

A large number of persons in Madison County who had applied for the Special Energy Assistance Program last August have still not received the money which was promised them, judging from the large number of calls being received by the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission.

From July 20 to Aug. 31, 1977 approximately 1,485 applications were taken. Of these, 1,181 individuals were certified as eligible to receive some or all of the $250 maximum per household.

Up to $50 was allowed for direct cash assistance to the individual, with the remainder to be paid to energy and fuel suppliers. All applications for which money was available in Madison County were forwarded to the Governor's Office of Manpower and Human Development by Oct. 31.

"As of this date, it is apparent that some persons have not received the cash payment which was allotted," Mike Crivello of the MECOC says. "A much larger number received the cash allotment and had vouchers sent by the GOMHD to their energy and fuel suppliers."

"However, suppliers are still asking for payment from some customers since money which was vouchered has not yet been received from the GOMHD."

"Applicants who have questions concerning the Special Energy Assistance Program may call the Governor's Office of Manpower and Human Development toll-free at the following number: (800) 232-2907."

Dances, hot meals, events for seniors at GC Township center

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer
Live music for dancing will highlight the first afternoon dance for senior citizens on Wednesday, Feb. 15, at the new Granite City Township Building, 2060 Delmar Ave. GC Township Supervisor Nelson Hagnauer said last week the American Federation of Musicians, Local 717, has agreed to provide musicians to play at the dance, starting at 12:45 p.m. Feb. 15, immediately following the lunch hour.

All seniors residing in Granite City Township are invited to attend the affair, the supervisor stressed.

Arrangements can be made in advance to ride to the township center on the Chorus (Community Handicapped Older Riders) bus.

Hagnauer noted the two-bus fleet has just established a new record for passenger service in January.

A total of 950 individuals was transported in the past month via the buses which provides passenger pickup service to handicapped persons and senior residents who need transportation to the hospital for outpatient therapy treatments or admission, to a physician's office, or to the township center, among other reasons.

The previous record figure for the number of persons using the bus service in a one-month period was about 800, the supervisor said.

One of the buses is used exclusively each day between 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. to haul large containers of hot food from a nutrition kitchen in Alton to the Granite City Township Building, where a hot meal is served daily at noon to those seniors calling one day previously to arrange for luncheon service.

Today's menus include stuffed green peppers, mashed potatoes, a vegetable and gingerbread with topping.

In spite of Wednesday's inclement weather, a total of 81 seniors enjoyed lunch at the township building and the mid-day diners frequently number 130 and more.

SIUC early applications recommended

High school and community college students considering applying for admission to Southern Illinois University at Carbondale for the 1978 fall semester are being encouraged to apply early in order to get the best chances for housing, financial aid and preferred study majors.

Individuals must gain admission to the university before they can be considered for university housing or financial assistance, according to Jerro Plaff, SIUC associate director of admissions and records.

Early applicants also insure themselves of more options in choosing a study major.

Beginning freshmen can qualify for admission by ranking in the upper half of their graduating class and obtaining a composite American College Test (ACT) score of 16 or a composite Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) score of 720.

An ACT score of 19 or an SAT score of 800 will qualify freshman applicants regardless of their class rank.

New freshmen interested in a two-year associate degree program at the School of Technical Careers must achieve an ACT score of 16, an SAT score of 720, or rank in the upper two-thirds of their graduating class.

Transfer students can qualify for admission with an overall "C" average.

Transfer students with less than 26 semester hours also must meet the requirements for beginning freshmen.

Admissions information is available from the SIUC office of admissions and records, (toll free) 800-642-3531.

Low cost Long Distance for night people.

One of the most overlooked bargains around these days is the nighttime rate for Long Distance.

By dialing direct and calling between 11 p.m. and 8 a.m. weekdays you can save up to 60% from daytime rates.

And it's not just inexpensive—it's practical, too.

For example, night people can dial California at 11 p.m. and it's only 9 p.m. out on the Coast.

While early risers can dial New York at 7:55 a.m. and it's already 8:55 Eastern time.

Imagine, saving 60% any weekday just by calling after 11 p.m. or before 8 a.m. (Discounts are smaller on calls within Illinois and to Alaska and Hawaii.)

And this is only one of many money-saving ideas you'll find in our new booklet, "How to Save Money on Long Distance."

You'll also find rate charts for calls within Illinois, out-of-state rate charts, an area code map, how to avoid charges for bad connections and wrong numbers, information about other bargain calling times, and much more. To get a free copy, just send in the coupon.

Teacher groups unhappy with Thompson proposal

Governor James Thompson's recommendation of a $75 million increase in state funding for Illinois public universities was denounced Thursday as "inadequate to meet the urgent needs" by Margaret Schmid, president of American Federation of Teachers Local 3500, bargaining agent for faculty in five Illinois public universities.

She said, "The governor's recommendation does little to improve Illinois' dismal standing as 42nd among the 50 states in appropriations for higher education per $1,000 in personal income."

"Since Illinois has the fifth highest median family income nationwide, this demonstrates a woeful lack of commitment to public higher education."

"The recommendation fails to provide for the 10 to 12 percent increase in faculty salaries needed to begin to overcome the last decade's inflation. It will do little to stabilize the funding of the State Universities Retirement System."

"Additionally, the governor has failed to address the question of serious funding inequities."

"Illinois Board of Higher Education data shows that the Board of Governors universities received only $1.61 per student in state general revenue funds in 1977, while two of the other state university systems received $2.54 and $3.57."

"These inequities extend even to such areas as libraries: BOG university libraries received only $109 per student in operating funds during 1976, while libraries in other university systems received as much as $205 per student," she added.

"Such disparities need to be corrected immediately. The university with the most adequate funding must be taken as the model to bring more equal educational opportunity to all students in all Illinois public universities."

AFT Local 3500 is bargaining agent for the faculties at Chicago State University, Northeastern Illinois University and Governors State University in Chicago, Eastern Illinois University in Charleston and Western Illinois University in Macomb.

The elected head of the Illinois Education Association (IEA), the state's largest teacher organization, termed Gov. Thompson's education funding recommendations "an election year replay" and promised IEA political efforts to "substantially increase funding before the final gavel falls on the upcoming legislative session."

Mel Smith, IEA president, said the governor's recommendations are "low figures at best. It's January of an election year and the governor, like Governors Ogilvie and Walker, is taking a conservative fiscal posture with regard to education."

"We have been down this path repeatedly, and must take a no-hum attitude at this point. Moreover, the governor's recommendations are not even in print at this date."

Smith said Gov. Thompson's $103 million suggested increase for elementary and secondary schools is less than the upward spiral of the cost of living and "certainly unacceptable to the education community. We strongly support the recent funding recommendations outlined by the State Board of Education."

"Their $185 million represents a ten percent increase and comes closer to hitting the proper mark," he said.

Hearing on water quality management

A public hearing on water quality management planning for Madison, St. Clair and Monroe counties will be held on Wednesday, March 1, at 1:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Location will be the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) Local 380 Hall, Route 137 (six blocks south of the Interstate 70 Collinsville exit), Collinsville.

A new governmental agency may be created in this area to assure water quality.

Purpose of the hearing will be to review a proposed water quality management plan for the designated Illinois counties.

It was prepared by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission.

The purpose of the plan is to meet national 1983 clean water goals intended to make area waters fishable and swimmable by then.

The goals are contained within the Federal Water Pollution Act Amendments of 1972 (Public Law 92-500).

The proposed plan applies to all sources of water pollution and all uses of water—agricultural, industrial, commercial and domestic.

A fact sheet outlining major issues and proposed decisions will be available, upon request, after Feb. 10.

Copies of the proposed plan are available for examination and review at the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission offices (303 W. Main St., Collinsville 62234) during regular business hours—8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday-Friday.

All interested persons are being urged to attend the public hearing and to state their opinions regarding the proposed water quality management plan.

Those wishing to state their opinions, but unable to attend the hearing, may submit their comments in writing prior to 5 p.m. March 15 to the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission, 303 W. Main, Collinsville 62234—Attention: Water Quality Management Comments.

Increased electric power plant construction activity will create demand for an estimated 36,000 additional jobs in 29 different construction trades by the end of 1981, according to a study by the Departments of Labor and Energy.

The report on power plant labor and capital requirements projects that the annual average of 129,960 yearlong power plant construction jobs in 1977 will jump to 160,290 in 1978 and 165,970 in 1981.

The projections indicate a rising demand for pipelayers, electricians and similar skilled craftsmen who require lengthy periods of training.

The report also notes that higher costs of labor, materials and equipment will contribute to increased costs of constructing power plants.

Costs for large nuclear plants, for example, are expected to rise (1975 dollars) from $393 per kilowatt in 1977 to $439 per kilowatt in 1981.

Building costs for smaller nuclear plants are also expected to rise (1975 dollars) — from $450 per kilowatt in 1977 to $535 per kilowatt in 1981.

The report says construction costs for coal-fired plants are likely to rise less rapidly. Large coal plants, for example, are expected to show construction cost increases (1975 dollars) from $260 per kilowatt in 1977 to $285 per kilowatt in 1981.

Installation of scrubbers — when required for sulfur dioxide removal — would increase these coal plant construction costs by 11 percent.

The labor requirements estimates were produced by the Construction Manpower Demand System (CMDS), a comprehensive information system designed to provide current construction data as well as to forecast the future volume, composition, geographic distribution, and associated labor requirements of all domestic construction activity.

The Labor Department is developing the CMDS with the assistance of the Department of Energy and the Tennessee Valley Authority. The computer-based system is scheduled for full operation by late 1979.

Three-fourths of steel capacity utilized; increased modernization

Year-end preliminary data reveal that the domestic steel industry continues to substitute modern production techniques for older technology.

The American Iron and Steel Institute says steelmakers in this country produced 124,746,000 tons of raw steel in 1977, a drop from the previous year's 128,000,000 tons.

However, output by electric furnaces — considered a particularly effective production process in this country because of the widespread availability of scrap — increased.

These furnaces produced 27,295,000 tons of raw steel in 1977, or about 21.9 percent of the year's total, compared to 24,612,000 tons, or 19.2 percent of total output, in 1976.

Open hearth steelmaking declined sharply in 1977. It totaled only 20,043,000 tons during the year, or 16.1 percent of total output. In 1976, open hearths poured 23,470,000 tons of raw steel, 18.3 percent of the year's total production.

Basic oxygen furnaces made 77,408,000 tons of raw steel in 1977, down somewhat from the previous year's 79,916,000 tons. In both years, this type of furnace — the most modern, efficient method of producing large quantities of steel — accounted for more than 62 percent of total output.

Another development in 1977 was the growth of strand and pressure casting of raw steel. These processes allow steel to be cast directly into slabs or billets for final processing, bypassing the ingot stage, which requires reheating and initial rolling on a primary mill.

This country's steelmakers produced 14,894,000 tons of strand and pressure cast steel in 1977, equivalent to 11.9 percent of the year's total raw steel tonnage.

Utilization of strand and pressure casting has grown in the past three years. In 1976, these processes were used for 13.5 million tons of raw steel, or about 10.5 percent of total production.

The previous year, 10.6 million tons of raw steel, or 9.1 percent of total output, was strand and pressure cast.

Raw steel output in December 1977 totaled 10,631,000 tons. Basic oxygen furnaces made 6,204,000 tons of steel during the month, with 2,207,000 tons coming from electric furnaces, and the remaining 1,629,000 tons from open hearths.

The steel industry had a capacity utilization rate of 74.7 percent in December, and a capacity use rate of 78.0 percent for the full year of 1977.

Emergency food stamp request process eased

Responding to a court order, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) food stamp program has modified its emergency application procedures for applicants with little or no income.

In November 1977, over 876,000 people from Illinois received food stamp benefits. For the first two months of the new fiscal year (October and November 1977), the total value of food stamp coupons spent in this state was over $47.7 million. USDA regulations permit food stamp applicants to receive stamps for 30 days without prior verification if their net income is so low — less than $30 a month for a family of four — that they would be eligible for free food stamps. But rules issued in August 1974 limited this procedure for certifying applicants, pending full verification, to once in a six-month period.

And before approving applicants pending verification, local food stamp offices were required to get preliminary confirmation of household circumstances, called a collateral contact, from another person with knowledge of the applicant's financial situation. A U.S. District Court in San Francisco overturned the six-month rule and collateral contact requirements on Nov. 30, 1977, on grounds they were not published for public comment in the Federal Register, as required by the Administrative Procedures Act. To comply with the court order, new procedures will no longer require a collateral contact before certifying applicants pending verification. However, after their 30-day eligibility runs out, these applicants will have to provide full verification before they can be recertified for any additional food stamps.

In addition, applicants will now be allowed to be certified pending verification as often as needed, provided this is not requested for two consecutive months. On Dec. 1, the USDA sent state welfare agencies a telegram outlining these rule changes. The text of that telegram was published in the Federal Register of Jan. 31. The changes are an interim measure, effective only until new regulations under the Food Stamp Act of 1977 are implemented later in 1978. Regulations to implement the new law are expected to contain a provision restoring the collateral contact requirement. Illinois state director for the food stamp program is Tim A. Grace, Illinois Department of Public Aid, 316 S. 2nd St., Springfield 62706.

New traffic record—no fatalities in 5 months

A new record in traffic statistics was set in the Quad-City area during January—the fifth consecutive month in which there were no fatalities due to traffic accidents. Statistics compiled by the Press-Record show that there has not been a traffic death in the Quad-City area since last August, although four persons died that month in vehicle accidents. It was the longest period in recent history in which no one has died in traffic mishaps.

either those occurring within the area or those involving local residents killed in other localities. Records show that there were no traffic fatalities in September, October, November or December, followed by last month's clear record.

In addition, the number of accidents in which drivers or passengers were hurt fell last month below the total reported in the same month a year ago. There were 39 injury accidents during January resulting in the injury of 58 persons, compared to 49 accidents causing the injury of 74 persons during the same month a year ago. This does not include accidents in which only property damage was involved.

Military pay exempt from state tax but filing required

Military pay is exempt from Illinois' state income tax, but Illinois residents serving on active duty in the U.S. armed forces or the Illinois National Guard are still required to file a state income tax return, the State Revenue Department is pointing out.

Illinois law requires servicemen and women who claim Illinois as their residence to file an IL-1040 return if a federal income tax return was filed. The return and accompanying W-2 statement, which reports the source of earnings, verify that the income was from military pay and not subject to the Illinois income tax.

Military pay exempt from tax includes earnings from: —Full-time service in the U.S. armed forces, the armed forces reserves, or a National Guard unit. —Service in the reserves during a national emergency.

—Federal service in a National Guard unit during a civil disturbance or national emergency. —Service in the reserves or a National Guard unit during annual summer camp training. Military pay earned in those activities can be subtracted on Line 4d of the state income tax return, the IL-1040.

Pay for time spent at weekly or monthly training sessions in the reserve or National Guard, however, is not exempt from the income tax.

Joint effort to check rising health care costs in Illinois

A joint effort to check rising health care costs in Illinois was launched Thursday at a conference where health insurers, labor and management combined forces with health providers.

The conference was the "first step in a shared statewide effort," according to Dr. J. M. Ingalls, chairman of the Task Force on Cost Effectiveness, which sponsored the session.

The task force is a group established by the Illinois State Medical Society (ISMS).

Members are the ISMS, Illinois Hospital Association, Blue Cross-Blue Shield, Chicago Hospital Council, Chicago Medical Society and Illinois Clinic Managers Association.

"Health care providers can view the cost problem from only one angle," Dr. Ingalls said in Chicago. "The conference gave us an opportunity to examine the issue from other perspectives.

"It also gave those outside the health care system an insight into the problems of reducing costs while maintaining high quality care... and enabled us to stress the role of consumers in cost containment efforts."

Participating in the conference along with task force members were representatives of major labor unions, health insurers, business and government.

Discussions centered around the cost-saving steps recommended by the National Commission on the Cost of Medical Care, an independent body formed by the American Medical Association.

"We are seeking reaction to the proposals and attempting to determine those that are practical for Illinois," Dr. Ingalls said.

The task force was created last June, several months before the AMA, American Hospital Association and Federation of American Hospitals formed a steering committee in response to a challenge by Congress to voluntarily check rising costs.

The task force has been moving to establish itself as a clearinghouse to distribute details of proven cost-saving measures to physicians and hospitals.

"What works in one hospital or physician's office also might work in others," Dr. Ingalls said. "By sharing ideas, we hope to transform individual efforts into a statewide program."

Illinois hospitals have been urged to form joint administration-medical staff committees to implement task force recommendations, including:

- (1) Posting sample patient hospital bills for physician inspection to increase cost consciousness.
- (2) Reviewing standing hospital orders for routine tests to determine if they are always needed; and
- (3) Adding sessions on cost effectiveness to hospital-based education programs.

Hospital committees also were urged to initiate patient education programs.

"The consumer plays a vital role in cost containment," Dr. Ingalls said.

"We must make consumers realize that if they maintain a healthy lifestyle they will reduce the need for medical care."

"Patients also must be convinced that a less expensive form of treatment may be just as effective as a higher-priced method."

Rodman going to Texas post

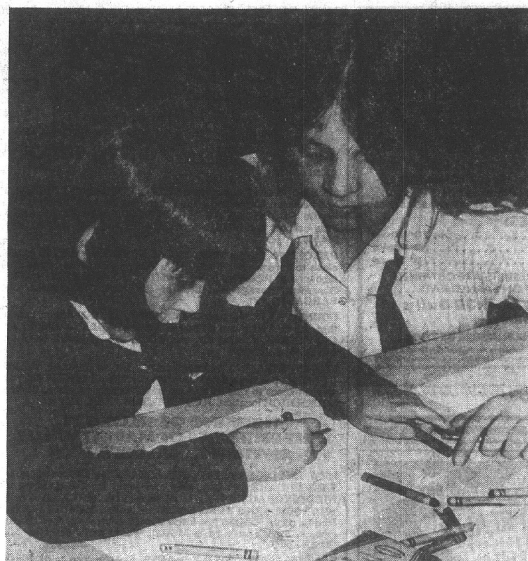

John A. Rodman, director of the Office of Research and Projects in the SIUE Graduate School, has resigned his position, effective Feb. 15.

Rodman has accepted a post as coordinator of sponsored projects for the University of Texas at Dallas.

In his new position, Rodman will be responsible for promoting research and other sponsored activities by assisting faculty members in the acquisition of project support and supervising the administration of grants and contracts.

A native of DuQuoin, he earned bachelor's and master's degrees at SIU at Carbondale before joining the SIUE staff as assistant coordinator for research in 1969.

In 1970, he was named assistant to the dean of the Graduate School, and he became coordinator of the Office of Research and Projects in 1972. Rodman was appointed as director in 1975.

Cross lighted during Lent

The beginning of the Lenten season on Wednesday, Feb. 8, will be observed at Lake View Memorial Gardens by the lighting of a large translucent cross. The cross is a gift from Miss Joyce Ruebel as a memorial to her mother, Mrs. Florence Ruebel, 1903-70.

The cross, constructed and erected by the Levy Sign Co., is 20 feet tall and the arms are 10 feet wide. It stands on a seven-foot base, making a total height of 27 feet.

It is lighted internally by 240 feet of neon tubes. There are six transformers ranging in size from 12,000 to 15,000 volts each. More than 55 manhours of labor were required to build and erect the cross.

Plan commission meets Thursday

The Granite City Plan Commission will meet at 1:15 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 9, in the city offices at 2301 Adams St., but the February meeting of the Board of Appeals, set for Wednesday, has been cancelled due to a lack of business.

There is only one item on the Plan Commission agenda, a request from R. Don Electrical Co. for a C-2 commercial zoning classification at 1746 Cleveland Boulevard, for the storage of equipment. The property, located at 18th Street and Cleveland Boulevard, is currently zoned R-5 for residential use.

Rhoads elected fire president

NEW PROGRAM FOR HAIR LOSS

Frank Moran Shows He Regrets Hair He Did Not Have Male Pattern Baldness

MIDWEST/ERICKSON HAIR CONSULTANT WILL EXPLAIN HAIR PROBLEMS AT THE TRAVEL LODGE 1200 19th ST. GRANITE CITY, ILL., THURSDAY, FEB. 9 HOURS 1 P.M. to 8:30

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 6—Mr. A.C. Erickson will be back in Granite City, Ill., Thurs., Feb. 9. Now is the time to act on this great opportunity. Every man and woman now losing hair should take advantage of this FREE CONSULTATION.

GUARANTEED

You will get a written guarantee on a pro-rated basis from the beginning to the end.

Naturally we could not give you such a guarantee if it didn't work.

CAN'T HELP

Male pattern baldness is the cause of a great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss, for which no method is effective. Midwest Erickson Hair Specialists cannot help those who are slick bald after years of gradual hair loss.

But, if you are not already slick bald, how can you be sure what is actually causing your hair loss? Even if baldness seems to "run in the family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of your hair loss.

Many conditions can cause hair loss. No matter which one is causing your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead you are beyond help. So, if you still have hair on top of your head, and would like to stop hair loss and grow more hair... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.

FREE CONSULTATION

Just take a few minutes of your time on Thurs., Feb. 9, and go to the Travel Lodge in Granite City, Ill., between 1 p.m. and 8:30 p.m., and ask the Desk Clerk for A.C. Erickson's room number.

There is no charge or obligation... all consultations are private, you will not be embarrassed in any way.

Efforts being made to end the long wait for sanitary sewers

Comment by Chairman Walter "Dick" Sparks on behalf of the Madison County Special Sewer Committee (Louis Whittle, Arthur W. "Cooper" Moore, Homer Boothman, Christ Paschoff, Harold Davis and Sparks).

There is good news for the people living in the Madison County-Township Sewer Project Area One. On Jan. 26, the Illinois Supreme Court ruled in favor of the sewer project.

On Feb. 2, the County and Township Sewer Committee met with Gene Sternberg and Marion Wilson, general contractors who are low bidders for construction of the project, Harry Hartman, project attorney, and Ed Juneau, engineer, to discuss what was needed to be done right away to start the project on its way again.

Mr. Hartman said that he could have all the legal requirements ready for the March meeting of the Madison County Board if no further problems were before then. Mr. Sternberg and Mr. Wilson asked the committee to allow them until Feb. 22 to re-evaluate their bids to see if they could still accept the contract at their original bid price or would have to ask for new bidding.

The committee was very pleased to hear their expressions that they felt this project is a "must" for our area — not only for the health and welfare of the home owners but for the financial impact in employment and business — and that they would cut out all of the fat in the project cost that they could to help get it started.

Mr. Juneau and the committee explained that there is no fat in the $5 million bond issue — that it was figured very closely to keep the cost down — and that if the contract price is raised we may have to start all over again to get permission to raise more funds to finance our share of the cost.

Another meeting was set for Feb. 22 to receive the contractors' decision. Let's all keep our fingers crossed and praise the Lord.

The committee has set the wheels in motion to try to get the few remaining easements that are needed, so they will know how to proceed and where, if there are still some holdouts at the time we are ready to sell the bonds. Mr. Juneau expressed his feelings that they had their work cut out for them to get the few remaining easements that are needed, so they will know how to proceed and where, if there are still some holdouts at the time we are ready to sell the bonds. Mr. Juneau expressed his feelings that they had their work cut out for them to get the few remaining easements that are needed, so they will know how to proceed and where, if there are still some holdouts at the time we are ready to sell the bonds.

The committee will arrange a meeting with the Environmental Protection Agency in Springfield as soon as Feb. 22 as we can, to discuss our position with them and receive any information they have concerning the grant offer and our obligations to them.

high. I underestimated the difficulty and the time required for Congress to take action on controversial measures. It is much easier for me to study and evolve and present legislation than it is for them to pass it in its final form. I have dashed some hopes and disappointed people who thought they might get quicker results.

There is a tendency for foreign policy developments to be reported more intensely and at greater length than domestic problems. It is much easier to talk or write about the generalities of foreign policy than to deal with the complex facts and figures of a new farm program, for example.

But if you look at what has been done this year — a $21 billion economic stimulus package containing substantial tax reductions, public works projects and public service jobs, a comprehensive welfare reform proposal, a national energy plan, the largest farm bill in history, refinancing of a Social Security system that was on the verge of bankruptcy — I doubt that any administration has done more with so many tough, complex, long-standing domestic problems in its first year.

My biggest mistake has been in inadvertently building up expectations too high. I underestimated the difficulty and the time required for Congress to take action on controversial measures. Says no justification to sling mud

To the Editor:

In response to recent news articles appearing in the Press-Record, I would like to pose some questions concerning Mr. Dan Partney's political validity and value a couple of personal points of view.

I would ask Mr. Partney if he is not a personal "stooge" of any person, organization, place of business or newspaper that may at times endorse him?

I don't think he would espouse this view of himself or anyone else not opposing him. But he must think that anyone with the crass audacity to run against him must be a "stooge" tool or dupe of any organization or intelligent voter that would endorse or aid an opponent.

Is Mr. Partney having a problem with organized labor?

If so, direct his wrath upon them.

Does he have a problem with Robert Weiss? If so, settle it with him. It seems to me any private citizen, organization or businessman that would be foolishly enough to openly disagree with him in any matter would surely have this man's insecure, insensitive condemnation cast upon him.

I consider myself a personal friend of both Robert Weiss and Jeff Worthen and know them to be two of the most sensitive, civic-minded people I know. Weiss is seven-county business agent for the Bricklayers. When union people are attacked he naturally reacts. Shame on him. John "Jeff" Worthen is presently a member of the Park Board. When he ran for voters election, he garnered more votes than two of the incumbents.

He ran a very low-key campaign without an mudslinging. He is conducting the same type of campaign for the office of member of the County Board. He has chosen not to put himself into the bottomless pit of dirty politics. He is keeping the title of public servant on a level that we can all be proud of.

So I ask, why should Worthen, or anyone else for that matter, debate this much-publicized critic of others? For one of many, I will give my full support, for any endeavor, now or in the future, to Worthen for his efforts to keep and maintain public service at a level of high quality and respectability.

Mrs. Tessaro dies at 52

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. today at Bethel Evangelical Free Church, 2450 Stratford Lane, for Mrs. Mildred Tessaro, 52, of Troy, relative of Granite City residents.

She died Wednesday, Feb. 1, at Community Hospital, Kishwaukee, Ill.

Mrs. Tessaro was the activity director of the Madison County Nursing Home, Edwardsville, a member of the American Red Cross Auxiliary, Troy, and the Gold Star Mothers.

Survivors include her husband, Mike Tessaro, a son, Larry Tessaro of Troy; one daughter, Mrs. Roseann Bergberger of Granite City; five brothers, William Short, Clearwater, Fla.; Elza Short, Taylor Springs, Ill.; James Short, Hammond, Ind.; Emmett Short, Griffin, Ind.; and Raymond Short of Cushing, Okla.; three sisters, Mrs. Ann Barnes and Mrs. Juanita Burton, both of Granite City; and Mrs. Mae Heller of Griffin, Ind.; and six grandchildren.

Burial was in Valley View Cemetery, Edwardsville.

Legislation moves slowly but year was productive — President

Statements by President Jimmy Carter summarizing his first year in office — I made some mistakes in judgment that weren't fatal. I underestimated, first of all, the quality of Congress — the intense concentration that individual members of Congress put on a specific issue, sometimes for 25 or 30 or 40 years.

They have become experts in that issue. The quality of their staff work is equivalent completely to the quality of my own staff work in the White House.

This was something I had not experienced in the Georgia state legislature, when they only met for 40 days and then go home. There is no continuity of the process in any state.

I was pleasantly surprised, and underestimated the competence of Congress. I think it is a very good thing that no longer do you have a dominant White House, as sometimes existed. I don't say the country suffered when, say, Franklin Roosevelt was here and he could send up bills to the Congress and almost immediately they would be voted on without thorough analysis.

My biggest mistake has been in inadvertently building up expectations too high. I underestimated the difficulty and the time required for Congress to take action on controversial measures. It is much easier for me to study and evolve and present legislation than it is for them to pass it in its final form. Discussions by mature students Going back to college or wading headlong into the academic waters for the first time is usually considered a rewarding experience for most mature students. However, when off-campus responsibilities conflict with on-campus activities, frustration may result.

On Thursdays from 2:30 until 4 p.m., mature students attending SIUE are invited to attend group sessions which address such problems. Meetings will be held in Room 1350 of Classroom Building II.

Purpose of the meetings will be for mature students to make friends among persons their own ages and share experiences with them.

According to Max Hanel, counselor in the Office of Student Development Services, the group will offer an opportunity for sharing and personal involvement among older students who feel a need for more interaction than just attending class and doing homework.

When pressing problems at home interfere with class attendance and/or preparation, mature students need to talk to someone, Hanel said; assignments have a way of piling up and must be found to be solved.

What to do with the children when they have a school holiday, and the parent does not, may be another problem that the mature student must consider before coming to class.

Sharing their experiences, the students learn how others have solved problems similar to their own, Hanel said.

Woman decides if she wants child

To the Editor:

I would like to express my feelings about the disturbance at the Hope Clinic.

Eight out of ten anti-abortionists would probably agree that a woman would be justified in aborting a child which would clearly be severely retarded or deformed.

Once given the premise that conditions do exist that would justify the termination of a pregnancy, then the issue ceases to be a moral question and becomes a question of opinion — who and under what conditions can a life be terminated. Who better to decide than a patient and her doctor?

Many say lenient abortion laws decrease the number of children available for adoption — true. How many young people are mature enough to realize their inability to support and guide a child? — Many.

How many of these young people are also mature enough to bear a child and release it for adoption? — Few.

The reason is a large number of children being raised by child-parents in environments that breed discontent, abuse and deprivation.

Everyone has a right to their beliefs. No one can force his own moral code onto someone else.

No one is greater than the laws of the land — even when these laws are wrong.

We expect our young to abide by the belief and yet, as adults, we believe we can ignore these same laws if we disagree with them enough. Does I say, not as I do?

Dr. Zevallos is a good doctor. If you want your baby, he will see to it that your child has every chance to be born healthy.

If you don't want your child, he will give you his best care to see to it you don't die for want of help.

I do not believe in abortions, but that is a personal thing, that I believe in Dr. Zevallos.

He has delivered three lovely children for me — with two, it was tough and good. His skill was their hope.

BEUNE RESIDENT

'Unpopular truth' spoken by priest

To the Editor:

Traveler Father Edwin Arensen deserves society's recognition and deepest gratitude for his outstanding attempt to single-handedly enter the Hope Clinic and point out information about abortion.

We should all be proud that we still have men of courage like Father Arensen in our midst who care enough to speak the truth even when it is unpopular to so.

Father Arensen's timing also draws attention to the U.S. Supreme Court's infamous decision allowing abortions five years ago on Jan. 22, 1973.

Since then, over 5,000,000 unborn American babies have lost their lives and society seems to have lost all "fear of the Lord."

Meanwhile, a few others in society continue to recklessly manufacture more and more "excuses" for mothers who wish to abort their own flesh and blood.

Just how long can this continue before God punishes us just like the wicked people of Sodom and Gomorrah?

CPR training is considered in Madison

The possibility of teaching cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) to high school students and staff members of Madison Community Unit School District 12 was discussed by the Board of Education Thursday.

Madison Fire Chief Eldon Rheeds informed the board that the Madison Fire Department includes trained CPR instructors.

He explained, "CPR is a basic life support measure. It consists of opening a patient's airway, providing artificial breathing and providing artificial circulation."

A letter from Captain Albert J. Bertagnoli, District 11 commander of the Illinois State Police, reported that the state police are initiating a program to train people in CPR procedures beginning with the less populated parts of the counties served by District 11.

The school administration is studying possible methods of having its staff and students at Madison High School learn the procedures.

Pregel was taken by Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was examined for an injury to his nose. He was released after four hours were taken.
